

EASTERN SHORE

AN OUTDOOR ENTHUSIAST'S PARADISE

TAYLOR HEAD PROVINCIAL PARK

Stretching from the Halifax area to Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia's Eastern Shore is a place where historic attractions, pristine wilderness, comforting cuisine, and expansive beaches come together to create a scenic seaside getaway.

The 100 Wild Islands are a group of over 280 wild islands, between Clam Harbour Beach Provincial Park and Taylor Head Provincial Park. Noted for their historical and ecological significance, most of these islands are now protected. Featured in Canadian Geographic, these islands offer sheltered coves of turquoise water with white sand beaches, windswept headlands, and unique boreal rainforests, bogs, and barrens. A rich diversity of seabirds, songbirds, and shorebirds also call this area home. Book a kayaking trip or scenic boat tour to experience this pristine environment.

AUTHENTIC SEACOAST

SHERBROOKE VILLAGE

Step into Nova Scotia's past at one of the region's living-history museums—the authentic late-1800s setting of Sherbrooke Village Museum, or Memory Lane Heritage Village's depiction of the province's rural industries in the 1940s and discover Chezzetcook's Acadian heritage at Acadian House Museum.
